

CHERYLE MOONEY

1946-2008

DECATUR: Cheryle “Chery” Mooney 61, died Sunday, April 6, 2008 in Dallas.

Chery was born August 26, 1946 in Haysprings, Nebraska to Andy and Lila Anderson. She married Dan Mooney on January 14, 1969 in Ft. Benning, Georgia. Chery was very proud and enjoyed her job as a school bus driver for Decatur ISD and because of her love for the teachers and the students she was co-owner of the Johnson Book Store in Decatur.

Survivors include her husband, Dan Mooney of Decatur; sons, Glenn Cook and wife, Kayla of Abilene; Tony Mooney and wife, Paula of Decatur, Brian Mooney of Decatur; daughter, Billie Cochran and husband, Josh of Decatur; grandchildren, Keenan, Brittany, Tamara and Tana Cook and Connor and Devin Mooney; brother, Yuntun Compo of Idaho, Jim Cook of Colorado, Glenn Anderson of Germany and Leon Anderson of Decatur; sisters Lani Vaughn of Decatur; Kathy Smith and Penny Torske of Nebraska, and Yvonne Keyes and Julie Baron of Arkansas.

Memorial service was at 1 p.m. Thursday, April 10th, at the First Methodist Church with Rev. Roy Spore and Rev. Johnny Irish officiating.

*CokerHawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, April 17, 2008