

JOHN KEITH MARSHALL

1933 - 2009

DECATUR: John Keith Marshall, 76, a retired preacher, died on Saturday, March 28, 2009 in Decatur.

Keith was born on February 26, 1933 in Weir, Texas, to Charles Nichols and Nellie Dee (Huches) Marshall. He married Mary Ella Weaver on July 6, 1951 in Levelland.

John retired as a Church of Christ preacher after 30 years and retired from the Levelland ISD after 15 years as supervisor of transportation. He continued his work with Christ by working with Family Outreach, Made a Difference and as a certified CNA.

Keith and Mary moved to Alvord in 2003 to be close to his family. He was a member of Central Fellowship Church.

Survivors include his wife of 57 years, Mary Ella Marshall of Alvord; son, Dr. Rodney Keith Marshall and wife, Nancy of Champaign, Illinois, daughter, YoVonna Ella Cowan and husband, R.C. of Alvord; daughter-in-law Pam Caldwell and husband, Steve of Vernon, Texas; grandchildren, Sara Lee and husband, Nick, Sonny Lance Wimberly, Joshua Marshall, Dr. Ryan Cowan and wife, Kerista; Tyler Cowan and wife, Paige; great grandchildren, Ella Cowan and Carson Lee; sisters, Charlene Odom and husband, Claude of Lometa, Texas and June Gage and husband, Frank of Jal, New Mexico.

Keith is preceded in death by his son, Timothy Allen Marshall on July 26, 2000.

Memorial service was 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Central Fellowship Church in Decatur with Rodney Keith Marshall officiating.

Graveside services were 10 a.m. Wednesday, April 1st in the Levelland Cemetery.

Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home

405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.

